Criteria1.3.1

Human values and Rights: Every person has dignity and value. Human values are end in itself and it sustains all other values, one of the ways that we recognise the fundamental worth of every person is by acknowledging and respecting their human rights. Every year 10th December is Celebrated as International Human Rights day in our institute.

Gender Equality and sensitivity: The gender priority and its importance in the development of family, society, and nation is explained. Aim of understanding and taking account of the society and cultural factors involved and discrimination in the most diverse spheres public and private life.

Environment and sustainability: The environmental studies is taught in the first year under the subject on environmental studies. Over worked and highly stressed social workers might reasonably wonder whether pressing environmental issues are really their concern. They learn to plant trees and reduce the Carbon level in the earth atmosphere. Today the issue of deforestation Global warming, Climate change, Reducing biodiversity, water conservation and pollution and non-renewable sources of energy are major problems among the students are taught how to control these problems and conserve biodiversity every year our college organises World Environment Day program on 5th June and students are encouraged to save the environment.

Professional Ethics : Like values professional ethics provide rules on how a person should act towards other people and institutions in such an environment. All the teachers during teaching in the class emphasise on the importances of discipline, punctuality hard work and commitment which have great value in the professional life of a person. These all, are taught by giving examples of great political leaders successful businessmen and famous persons from every day life.
